HOW YOUR EMPLOYEES CAN HELP

- Join our e-newsletter list for updates: irco.org/contact-us
- Contribute to a gift matching program for employee donations
- Subscribe to our social media
- Volunteer

At IRCO, our volunteers are considered part of our family, our greatest advocates, and crucial to our mission. Our volunteers provide essential skills and knowledge to fulfill our mission, meaning your time can have a real impact on people's lives. Volunteering with IRCO can also provide a transformative opportunity to be part of a diverse group and gain exposure to different areas of social services.

- Host a peer-to-peer fundraiser

Spread the word on how IRCO supports the community here in Oregon! Host an event on behalf of IRCO and inspire those in your circle of influence who want to help empower people from around the world to build new beginnings.

Consider:

- Hosting a get together with friends, family and colleagues—share why you care about the work of IRCO and how they can help
- If you run a business, a sales percentage donated directly to IRCO
- A pledge campaign in the style of a walk or jog-a-thon! Or get creative and incorporate a viral contest or any safe physical challenge—the sky's the limit
- An online fundraiser in honor of your birthday, anniversary, or dedicated to an individual or community that has been impacted by IRCO's work
- Sell IRCO merchandise

We can provide:

- Social media coverage to highlight your campaign/fundraiser
- A personal fundraising web-page to collect donations
- Staff members who can present on specific IRCO topics or videos from leadership sharing their stories
- Various print & digital collateral
- Local eatery recommendations owned/run by immigrants, refugees, and BIPOC communities
