Since its inception in 1994, AFC has built a reputation as a visible focal point and strong network in the API communities, as well as among mainstream service providers.

Our region’s API population has grown by over 26% in the past decade; more than 125,000 Asian and Pacific Islanders now make the Portland area their home.

AFC served almost 12,000 people in 2017.

IRCO ASIAN FAMILY CENTER
8040 NE Sandy Blvd.
Portland, Oregon 97213
503.235.9396
www.irco.org
The Asian Family Center (AFC) is a multilingual community-based center providing multiple services through a strength and family based program model for Asian and Pacific Islander (API) children, young people and their families.

AFC is one of a few centers in the country developed specifically to assist API youth and families by providing culturally specific services.

Our culturally and linguistically specific services emphasize family unity, strength, and community cohesiveness, and include:

- Early Learning
- Family Engagement
- Gang Prevention & Intervention
- Academic Support
- SUN Schools
- Community Development
- Health Enrollment & Navigation
- Domestic Violence Services
- Poverty Reduction, Housing & Energy Assistance
- Leadership Development

To meet the needs of Oregon’s growing API communities, AFC is built on a one-stop service delivery model, with an emphasis on comprehensive support to API children, young people and their families. AFC draws upon the expertise of our multicultural and multilingual staff to provide outreach and service delivery in more than 20 languages.

It is the policy of IRCO and the Asian Family Center to provide services and equal employment opportunity to all people without regard to race, color, creed, sex, age, national origin, sexual preference, marital status, religion, or physical or mental disability.